Intro.

B | The services of a clerk were wholly placed at the disposal of the R. Committee in G.O. No. G 1195-6/Jan 14-11-1 1925. 8. 1911. Till then C. N. Rajappa, clerk to the G. & R. S. was devoting a portion of his time to the Committee's work.

C + D | C. N. Rajappa, permanent clerk of the Mice has been granted leave without allowances for one year from the 17th Dec 13.

Govt sanctioned the deputation of Venkatasubbanga to work in the R.C. Office for a year in place of C Nagapan on leave without allowances. This period runs till the 17th Dec 1914

If Venkatasubbanga is definitively reverted to the Comptroller's Office, a wholly new and inexperienced clerk will have to be appointed, as we cannot get one from the G.R.S. which is itself undermanned.

It is probable that after the pressure of Budget work is over, the Comptroller will have no difficulty in sparing Venkatasubanga.

There is not enough work in the AC Office to give full employment to a clerk, & Venkatesublinga could probably attend to it in addition to his ordinary duties as an Accountant of the Comptroller's Office.

While this arrangement lasts he might draw his pay in the Comptroller's Office & be given an allowance of Rs 15/- p.m. for the extra work he has to do for us. There would then be a savings of Rs 45/- p.m. in our expenditure.

We may keep the work till the end of the term agreed on. If however the arrangement of doing both the duties can be made, I have no objection.

If this arrangement is not possible, the Comptroller might perhaps be told that the clerk's services cannot be spared till the expiry of his deputation.

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER,
MYSORE GOVERNMENT,

Bangalore, dated 31st March 1914.

My dear Rama Rao,

You remember I asked you when I handed over charge of the Retrenchment Committee work that Clerk Venkatsubbaiya who was deputed from this office as a temporary measure should be relieved and sent back to Comptroller's Office as early as possible.

The work in connection with the State Budget is at greatest pressure now in this office and I shall be obliged if you will kindly arrange to relieve Venkatsubbaiya and send him back to this office as early as you can.

Yours sincerely,

J. Chakravarti

N. Rama Rao, Esq., B.A., B.L.,

Comptroller's Office,

Bangalore, the 7th April 1914.

Dear Mr Ramakrishna,

Yesterday, you were kind enough to say that you would allow Venkata Subbiah to work in this Office for about three hours daily till the 14th next and transfer him back to his food on that day.
As the Budget work

It is now going on under high pressure & ^{the Consolidated Estimates for the whole State} will have to be ~~completed~~ ^{prepared} before the 1st week of next month.

every day is of great importance and I am obliged to ask you to give him instructions ^{being} ~~to be~~ in this ~~affair~~ in accordance with what you said yesterday.

Yours truly,

Dear Mr. Shanmuga,

Regarding Venkata Subbairu on deputation as clerk in the R. C's office, please let me know whether the following temporary arrangement would suit:

He might attend to his ordinary duties in the Comptroller's Office till the work connected with the budget is over and do the work of the Ret. Committee's Office in addition. While this arrangement lasts we can give him Rs 15/- per. for the addl work he does for us - his salary proper being of course borne by you.

After the budget work is over, Venkata Subbairu will have to be kindly sent back to us.

This proposal is due to the difficulty there will be in getting on with the E. C. work with a thoroughly hard map. We cannot get a hand from the G. R. S.

which is itself undermanned.

yours sincerely,
(80) W. R. Amador.

OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER,
MYSORE GOVERNMENT,

Bangalore, dated 1st May 1914.

Dear Mr. Rama Rau,

Your D.O. of the 29th April suggesting certain proposals regarding Venkatasubbiah of this office doing work as Retrenchment Committee Clerk in addition to his ordinary duties in this office, as you have not been able to secure a suitable hand for the Retrenchment Committee Work.

I am to state that under the circumstances the Comptroller is agreeable to take back Venkatasubbiah to this office till the end of June 1914 during which period he will work in this office and will be allowed to do Retrenchment Committee Work in addition whenever he can find time receiving therefor an allowance of Rs.15/- per mensem. On 1st July 1914 he will be retransferred to Retrenchment Committee, if necessary, for a reasonable period until a suitable hand hand can be found for him in the Retrenchment Committee Office.

Venkatasubbiah may accordingly be transferred back to this office at once. I believe you will take steps to obtain the necessary sanction of Government for the arrangements made.

Yours sincerely,

B. Ramaswami
